Part III - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Recognizing the impact the Great Park will have on all the citizens of Orange County for generations to come, the Foundation engages in activities to support the planning, development and operation of a Great Park for Orange County To this end, the Foundation conducts activities that promote the Great Park.

a) Public Information Campaign

$100,649

The Foundation provides information about the Great Park to residents of Orange County through a variety of media. During this fiscal year, we developed brochures and postcards, which we mailed to residents countywide. We produced a television commercial about the Great Park, which aired to residents countywide. And we continued to distribute a variety of promotional items such as coffee mugs, carry bags, t-shirts, key chains and bumper stickers All Orange County residents are served by this public information campaign.

b) Newsletter

$27,135

The Foundation publishes a monthly newsletter providing updated information related to the development of the Great Park. This newsletter is mailed to nearly 10,000 individuals countywide and is available to all Orange County residents on request

c) Website

$9,965

As part of our effort to promote the Great Park, the Foundation developed a website with information including: the Great Park Plan, Open Space & Public Land Uses, Private Development Uses, Learning from Other Great Parks, and a Great Park Survey The email address is: orangecountygreatpark org

d) Research Study

$14,000

The Foundation commissioned a study to consider whether a dedicated specimen tree nursery would provide benefits to the Great Park Developing a nursery on the scale necessary to provide trees for the Great Park has not been done before in Southern California. The study determined that establishing a tree nursery at the Great Park would provide significant opportunities to positively affect the environmental quality of the Southern California region

e) Program Service % of Operating Expenses

$62,475

(Includes wages, payroll tax, legal fees, supplies, telephone, postage, occupancy, promotional items)
